The Annual Grist Run Through. Base Ball Park in the List.

A VERY INTERESTING MEETING

After the Tedious Work of Reading the Names of One Hundred and Twenty-four Saloon Keepers and Their Sureties—Mr. Farrell wants Cheaper Meat, and Proposes to Let the Farmers Furnish It—The Main Street Disaster Figures.

The annual issuing of licenses for saloons and liquor stores was gone through with by the city council last night. There were 124 of them, all renewals, and as there were no "kicks" it was a mere matter of form. City Clerk Dannenberg read the names of the applicants and their sureties, who came forward, were sworn by the chairman, and the bond approved by a vote. Then the papers were taken to the First branch, and the action of the second concurred in by a vote. It may be that there are occasions when this consumption of the time of the entire council is justifiable, but last night, as each application consumed about four minutes as a mere matter of form, many members showed signs of impatience. The first branch took a recess once or twice to wait for something to do.

It was suggested by members that when there was no protest against granting a license there could be no possible objection to allowing the mayor and city clerk or solicitor to pass on the bonds. The committee on petitions and remonstrances goes over all the applications before they reach council, under the present system. An ordinance proposing a change in the system will probably be introduced at an early meeting.

The only ripple of interest in the proceedings last night was caused by the application of the Wheeling Base Ball Association for license to sell beer at the new ball park on the Island. Messrs. Charles Horstman and James Lancaster were offered as sureties.

Chairman Maxwell said he thought no license could be granted until the application had been before the committee on petitions and remonstrances. A motion was made by Mr. Waterhouse to grant the petition. On looking up the law Mr. Maxwell found that it was merely a resolution which required the reference of applications for license to the committee. The license was granted by a vote of 16 to 6.

A petition was received from property owners adjoining the new Pittsburg, Wheeling & Kentucky depot, saying that the railroad company was encroaching upon the ten-foot limit fixed by the ordinance to be maintained between the new station and adjoining property, that the ground is sandy and the digging endangers the buildings east of it. The matter was referred to the board of public works with power to act, if it should be found that the company is violating the provisions of the ordinance giving them the right to erect the building.

The reports of several committees were read, and the bills recommended for payment were ordered paid. Among them were the bills for extra services rendered the fire department by a number of men on the occasion of the fire following the Main street disaster. The board of public works also presented bills for $337.01 for work in searching for the bodies of the victims of the disaster, with a suggestion that the sum be paid out of the city contingent fund. It was stated that there was not money enough in the city contingent fund to pay this, but that there was in the board of public works' contingent fund. Mr. Waterhouse moved that the board of public works be instructed to pay the bills and collect the amount from the owners of the property. This was adopted.

The resolution authorizing the committee on fire department to purchase horses when needed without referring the matter to council was referred to the committee on ordinances, as it will require an ordinance to make it effectual.

The resolution to employ T. S. Riley to assist the city solicitor in the trial of the case of Paige, Carey & Co. vs. the city was on motion of Mr. Waterhouse rejected, by a vote of 19 to 4. The first branch refused to concur and the second reconsidered and adopted the resolution by a vote of 18 to 4.

The annual ordinance fixing the license taxes was read by its title and referred to the committee on ordinances.

A communication was read from Mayor Caldwell reciting the action taken in reference to the wrecked buildings on Main street and asking the approval of council. The acts of the officials were formally approved.

The resolution of the committee on lights regarding an inquiry into the proposed purchase of the Wheeling Electric Company's plant was laid on the table on motion of Mr. Linsey.

A number of resolutions calling for the construction of sewers, setting of curbs and the like were referred to the board of public works.

A communication from the board of public works and a letter from W. J. Cotta, claiming a certain piece of property at Baker and McColloch streets, was referred to the committee on streets, alleys and grades.

The committee on real estate reported that the lowest bid for painting the walls and ceilings of the council chambers was $310 by S. J. Beall. The committee was instructed to have the work done as soon as possible, the cost to come out of the contingent fund.

The numerous propositions for building inspectors were referred to the ordinance committee.

In the first branch a petition was presented, signed by Mr. A. Reyman, asking permission to lay a switch from the Baltimore & Ohio road at Main and Sixteenth streets into the new building he proposes to erect at that corner on the site until lately occupied by Peter Erb's livery stable. It was referred.

Mr. Farrell presented the following, which went to the committee on ordinances:

WHEREAS, The prices of meat to the citizens of Wheeling have become excessive, and the only hope for fair dealing in the sale of that which is absolutely essential to every man, woman and child in this city, no matter what may be his or her condition of life, is for the freest trade in meats to be permitted in the markets of the city of Wheeling;

WHEREAS, The burden of such excessive price is made trebly onerous to those who have to labor by reason of a reduction of the compensation which they receive, and,

WHEREAS, The ordinances of the city of Wheeling have sections therein so framed as to prevent proper competition by our neighboring farmers with the monopolists who now control the meat market; now, therefore, as a simple measure of justice, and as a step towards the relief which our citizens, and especially the poorer among them, have a right to demand and expect at the hands of this council, who are their representatives, and to carry out that maxim of legislation, that "the law should be for the greatest good of the greatest number."

Be it resolved, By the council of the city of Wheeling, that the committee on ordinances be and they are hereby directed and empowered to report, with the utmost speed, two ordinances, one amending the ordinance entitled "an ordinance in relation to markets and the clerk of the market," by repealing the twenty-seventh section thereof, and the other amending the ordinance entitled "an ordinance in relation to the Centre market, and the election, duties and compensation of the clerk thereof," by repealing the thirtieth section of the last named ordinance, thereby removing the restrictions in the existing laws preventing the farmer from selling his meat to the suffering people in small quantities and within the reach of their purses.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the United Presbyterian church, the following resolutions of respect were adopted:

Resolved, That we deeply deplore our loss, and that we extend our heartfelt sympathy to his mother and family in this their sad bereavement.
